ANOTHER SHORT-TERM CR EXPECTED. H.J. Res 48, the sixth continuing resolution for FY11, passed the House March 15 and is expected to pass the Senate as well. It would continue funding for most federal programs at FY10 levels through April 8. It would increase budget authority (the amount actually spent by the government) for Section 502 direct loans to ensure the program has the same funding available as in FY10. It would eliminate HUD's brownfields program and a CDFI pilot program for Native Hawaiian housing counseling. The bill is available at http://rules.house.gov. HAC will post updates at http://www.ruralhome.org.

HOUSE VOTES TO TERMINATE MORTGAGE ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS AND NSP. The FHA Refinance Program Termination Act (H.R. 830) passed the House on March 10. At press time on March 16 the House was considering the NSP Termination Act (H.R. 861), which would rescind the third round of Neighborhood Stabilization Program funding and terminate the program, and the HAMP Termination Act (H.R. 839), which would end the Home Affordable Modification Program although assistance would continue to be available for homeowners with commitments. The bills' texts are available at http://thomas.loc.gov.

SECTION 202 FUNDS OFFERED. Apply by June 1 for capital advances and rental assistance to develop supportive housing for very low-income seniors age 62 and higher. HUD REACTIVATES EMERGENCY HOMEOWNERS’ LOAN PROGRAM, HOUSE VOTES TO ELIMINATE IT. Originally created in the 1970s, the program received $1 billion in funding from the Dodd-Frank Act to provide emergency mortgage relief to unemployed or underemployed homeowners at risk of foreclosure. The program will be administered by states that have substantially equivalent programs and by NeighborWorks® America in other states. Comments are due May 3 on the EHLP interim rule. See Federal Register, 3/4/11, or http://www.regulations.gov. Potential applicants should contact a HUD-approved housing counseling agency or a NeighborWorks National Foreclosure Mitigation Counseling Program site. Visit http://www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/ehlp/ehlphome.cfm or call HUD's housing counseling office, 1-800-569-4287. On March 11 the House approved H.R. 836, which would rescind the program's funding and terminate the program. Visit http://thomas.loc.gov.

REVISIONS PROPOSED FOR ADDRESSING MANUFACTURED HOME PROBLEM REPORTS. HUD is considering changes to regulations concerning how manufacturers and others address reports of problems with manufactured homes, including imminent safety hazards and violations of the HUD Code, but not normal wear and aging, unforeseeable consumer abuse, or unreasonable neglect of maintenance. Comments are due April 18. See Federal Register, 2/15/11, or http://www.regulations.gov. Contact HUD's Office of Manufactured Housing Programs, 202-708-6401.

NATIONAL HOUSING TRUST FUND FAQ REVISED. The National Housing Trust Fund campaign's updated answers to frequently asked questions include HUD's proposed regulations and other new developments, available at http://www.nlihc.org/doc/NHTF-FAQ.pdf.

HAC PUBLISHES NEW FAIR HOUSING ANALYSIS. HAC analyzed over 91,000 fair housing complaints in a HUD dataset that includes violations filed with HUD and FHAP agencies from FY98 to FY08. The reasons for complaints are generally similar in urban and rural areas, with disability replacing race during the past five years as the most common basis for complaint. The report includes advice from experienced rural fair housing providers. Rural Fair Housing Complaints and Enforcement is free at http://www.ruralhome.org or $5 from Janice Clark, HAC, janice@ruralhome.org, 202-842-8600.
