

Director, Housing Programs

RCAC is offering an exciting opportunity for an experienced housing professional to join its senior management team and provide overall leadership, vision and supervision of RCAC's housing programs including technical assistance and support services to mutual self-help organizations, community housing development organizations, low income and Native American communities; representation of RCAC housing services throughout RCAC networks. Experience as a housing development consultant is desired.

This position requires a Bachelor's degree and eight (8) years of applicable experience in housing policies and programs. Additional education may be substituted for experience.

West Sacramento, California is the preferred location, but nine of RCAC's western states will be considered provided the city is within a one hour's drive of a major airport.

For an application package visit www.rcac.org or call 916/447-9832, option 3

This position is open until filled

Women and minorities are encouraged to apply
EOE/AA